

Wolf-Dieter Heiss

- Wolf-Dieter Heiss, graduated in medicine from the University of Vienna, Austria, in 1965. He achieved his training in Vienna and spent research fellowships at several institutions in the USA. In 1978 he moved to Cologne and was professor of neurology and chairman of the Department of Neurology of the University of Cologne and director of the Department of General Neurology at the MPI in Cologne. He was president of the International Stroke Society 1992-96 and was president of the EFNS 2001 – 2005. His research interests are stroke and neuroimaging especially positron emission tomography.