

SHORT BIO

Doron M. Behar (Shaare Zedek Medical Center, Jerusalem, Israel) holds an MD and PhD degrees from the Technion - Israel Institute of Technology. At his capacity as an MD he graduated three specialization programs in Internal Medicine, Critical Care Medicine and Medical Genetics. His PhD thesis was in the field of Population Genetics. Dr. Behar has multi-year background experience in the development of genetic testing for the public using a direct internet based customer approach at his capacity as the chief medical officer of Gene by Gene Ltd. His primary interest is in developing robust, low-priced genetic testing to the general public that will allow the hope of responsible personalized genetic medicine to any individual worldwide.