

BIOGRAPHY

Bonaventura Clotet, MD, PhD

Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain

Dr. Bonaventura Clotet received his MD at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona in 1976 and his PhD in 1981 for his investigations on surrogate markers for connective tissue diseases.

He is Head of the HIV Unit since 1987 and Director of the Retrovirology Laboratory “irsiCaixa” Foundation at the Hospital Universitari Germans Trias i Pujol, Barcelona, Spain since 1993. He is also President of the Foundation “Lluita contra la SIDA”, founded in 1992. Since 2006, he is co-director of the HIVACAT project for the development of the AIDS vaccine in Spain. Indeed, he is associated professor of Medicine at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB).

Dr. Clotet has been member of the Drug Resistance Mutations Group (IAS-USA) during 10 years, until July 2011 and of the Governing Council of the IAS during 8 years, until July 2010. He also participates in the organizing committee and scientific committee of several drug resistance workshops and international AIDS conferences; indeed, he is an active member of the Spanish Expert Commission for the Evaluation of Research projects in the National Programme of Health and national AIDS Programme. Dr. Clotet has been co-chair of the Track B for the Barcelona World AIDS meeting 2002.

He has published more than 500 papers in international journals.

He is co-director of the AIDS CYBERJOURNAL and member of the editorial board of AIDS Journal, HIV Medicine, Expert Review of Clinical Immunology, Future HIV therapy and Journal of the International Association of Physician in AIDS Care.

He is reviewer for AIDS, JAIDS, JID, Antiviral Therapy, HIV Medicine, CID, Lancet, and Drugs.

In October 2010 he has been awarded by the Catalan Health Institute for his lifetime scientific career.