

SHORT CURRICULUM VITAE

---

Name: Spiridon Konitsiotis
Date/Place of Birth: November 23, 1963; Corfu, Greece
Marital Status: married, three children
Present Position: Professor of Neurology
Faculty of Medicine, School of Health Sciences
University of Ioannina,
451 10, Ioannina
Greece
Tel: +30-26510 -07514
Fax: +30-26510-07011
e-mail: skonitso@cc.uoi.gr, skonitso@gmail.com

Graduated from University of Ioannina Medical School, Greece and then worked in the dept of pharmacology to finish his doctoral thesis on “neuropharmacology and functional anatomy of basal ganglia”. He completed his residency training in neurology at the University Hospital of Ioannina, Greece, and in 1996 started postdoctoral fellowship at the Experimental Therapeutics Branch, National Institute of Neurological Disorders and Stroke, NIH, Maryland, USA under the supervision of Dr. Tom Chase. He participated in clinical research focusing in experimental therapeutics in parkinson’s disease, as well as laboratory research with parkinsonian primates. In 2000 he returned to Greece as lecturer in Neurology, University of Ioannina Medical School where he is currently associate professor of Neurology. He is running the outpatient clinic for movement disorders, is a member of the greek movement disorders group, and has published more than 80 papers both on clinical and laboratory studies. He is lecturing extensively on issues related to treatment of Parkinson’s disease. His main research interests include Parkinson’s disease, restless legs syndrome, imaging in movement disorders and the pathophysiology of levodopa-induced dyskinesias.