

Professor Halina Bartosik-Psujek. Graduated from Medical University In Lublin. She worked until 2015 in Department of Neurology in Medical University in Lublin, where got first and second degrees in neurology. Since 2015 she has been working in University of Rzeszow as the Head of the Department of Neurology. Specializes in autoimmunological diseases, especially in multiple sclerosis. Author of many scientific publications and organizer of numerous MS trainings and educational campaigns targeted to doctors and patients.