

Joanna Jędrzejczak is Associated Professor of neurology at the Department of Neurology and Epileptology Centre of Postgraduate Medical Education, Warsaw, Poland. She received her MD from Medical Academy and PhD at the Polish Academy of Sciences in Warsaw. After completing her residency in neurology and training in EEG she became the Head of the Video-EEG Laboratory in Department of Neurology and Epileptology. Her special interests are differential diagnosis of epilepsy, psychogenic non-epileptic seizures, management of women with epilepsy and new antiepileptic drugs. She is since 2008 President of Polish Society of Epileptology.

Author or co-author of 180 scientific publications related to clinical epilepsy

She organized during 2010 and 2011 two major international Epileptology Courses – Migrating Course and Baltic Summer Epilepsy School. Both of them were very successful and received very good notes during evaluation. She had position of Director of Medical Center for Postgraduate Education in Warsaw in 2008-20016 .