

Jarosław W. Sławek, MD, PhD

Professor of Neurology at Medical University of Gdańsk, Head of Neurology Dpt. at St. Adalbert Hospital, Gdańsk, Poland. Main scientific interests include movement disorders, especially Parkinson's Disease and cognitive decline, dystonia and spasticity and Botulinum toxin therapies and rare diseases. He is an author and co-author of more than 100 scientific papers in peer-reviewed medical journals and 4 chapters in internationally recognized books. Prof. Sławek is a member of Editorial Board of Parkinsonism and Related Disorders, Basal Ganglia and co-editor of Polish Neurology and Neurosurgery journals and Editor of the educational website (www.neuroedu.pl) of Polish Neurological Society.

He is a Vice-President and President - Elect of Polish Neurological Society.