

Tomasz Gabryelewicz is Professor of psychiatry in the Department of Neurodegenerative Disorders at the Mossakowski Medical Research Centre of Polish Academy of Sciences, and head of Alzheimer's Disease Department in Central Clinical Hospital in Warsaw.

Professor Gabryelewicz integrative research approach is largely at the interface between clinical research, psychiatric neuroscience and aethiology of neurodegenerative disorders. His areas of major research interest include mild cognitive impairment, dementia, biomarkers, depression and BPSD.

Professor Gabryelewicz has published > 100 scientific publications and book chapters, and he is vice-chairmen of Polish Alzheimer's Association, Polish Brain Council and a member of several advisory boards in the area of dementia and psychogeriatric.